[5] As a data scientist, I need to find a dataset on COVID.

[5] As a data scientist, I need to determine what evaluation questions I can answer with this data.

[2] As a manager, I need to review the data questions to determine if they are suitable to my department.

[8] As a data scientist, I need to determine what analyses I will run to answer my questions.

[5] As a student, I need to review Data Wrangling and Visualization L9 to determine what analyses to run.

[5] As a student, I need to review Machine Learning and Modeling and Intermediate Statistics to review how to run the analyses.

[3] As a data scientist, I need to determine what assumptions and data wrangling I need for regression.

[3] As a data scientist, I need to determine what assumptions and data wrangling I need for random forest.

[5] As a student, I need to review Data Wrangling and Visualization L1-3 on how to wrangle my data.

[5] As a data scientist, I need to transpose columns on county.

[13] As a data scientist, I need to recode all of my categorical variables to numeric for random forest work.

Data Wrangling and Visualization L1-3 on how to wrangle my data.

[5] As a data scientist, I need to transpose columns on county.

[13] As a data scientist, I need to recode all of my categorical variables to numeric for random forest work.

[2] As a data scientist, I need to remove all missing data from the columns I am using.

[8] As a data scientist, I need to clean and screen my data.

[5] As a data scientist, I need to run my regression analysis.

[5] As a data scientist, I need to run my random forest.

[1] As a team member, I need to attend my virtual daily standup.

[8] As a team member, I need to learn how to use Git so that I can share my code.

[5] As a student, I need to review Tableau.

[13] As a data scientist, I need to create beautiful, color-coordinated visuals in Tableau that showcase the work we have done.

[5] As a student, I need to set a time to practice my final project presentation with my instructor.

[1] As a professional, I need to check my presentation over for typos before submitting it.
